Please continue to pray for the 10 young people from this parish who were confirmed: Joshua Adamson, Victoria Adamson, Cormac Alway, Selena Chambers, Stephen Doherty, Helen Houston, Ellen McClaren, Emma McPolin, Aoife Magowan, and Molly Whittle.

Thank you to everyone who helped with the preparations, and on the Sunday evening, including those who provided buns and/or helped to serve the refreshments.

New Wine Sligo 2018

8th – 13th July

NewWine
Local churches changing nations

Sligo 18 provides a space and a place where churches and Christians from all over Ireland, can come together to hear God, so that local churches can be empowered and equipped to change their community and Ireland. It is a key event for the church in Ireland to join together for a week of worship, ministry and teaching.

Relevant and fun filled programmes keep those aged 0-18 happy while the adults can enjoy the main sessions, seminars and workshops throughout the week. Pastor Jonathan Rue (Desert Vineyard, California) will be leading the Bible Teaching each morning. He will be joined by Rev David White, Nicola Neal, Phil Emerson, Mark Melliush and others from across Ireland and beyond for the evening celebrations, seminars, worship and more. You can fill your day with seminars and teaching or you can take a trip to the beach, get involved in the many community events or enjoy the sights of Sligo. You set the pace for the week.

From the Rector...

The wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle on 19th May was the focus of attention for people throughout the world. People travelled to Windsor as invited guests, others gathered outside St George's Chapel or lined the route from Windsor Castle to St George's Chapel and millions watched the wedding on TV. The day was the culmination of months of planning and preparation.

Although some information about the wedding was made public, other aspects of the wedding were closely guarded secrets. The person who designed and made the dress didn't even tell some of her staff who was going to wear the dress, and she didn't even tell her husband and family until the morning of the wedding.

The planning and preparation for the Fete on 16th June may not be just on the same scale as the planning and preparation for the wedding, but the Fete Committee and Chairman have been busy during the past few months getting organized. In various ways, including recent magazines, they have been communicating about the Fete, they have been coordinating all that needs to be done in the lead up to the Fete, they have been recruiting volunteers to help on the stalls and sideshows, they have been requesting and encouraging people to contribute items for the various stalls and so much more. (See page 5)

Planning and Preparing

Please support the Fete and be involved if you can. Invite others to come along, to be involved and to support the Fete. It's great to see so many people working together, and to see so many people in the grounds of the Church, the Hall and the Church itself, where the entries from the colouring competition are displayed.

Planning and preparation are often part of everyday life. The Bible also contains many references to planning and preparation as people listened to God and responded to His word – the Bible. As we prepare for the future, are we listening to God and responding to Him?

Are we following Jesus Christ and through the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit seeking to fulfil His will? Are we listening to God, learning from His word? Are we growing and developing in our faith, preparing for the future and our part in God's plan?

Roderic

Church Fete 2018 – Saturday 16th June

Our Annual Church Fete is now only a few days away. The Fete Committee have, as always, been working hard to make the event successful, and now we are asking for your help and support.

The Cake Stall - Every year we appeal for cakes, scones, tray bakes etc for this stall. Can I ask as many people as possible to bake something and bring it to the Parish Hall on either Friday 15th or the morning of the Fete? If necessary, we can arrange for items to be collected if you ring the Parish Office and let us know. The cake stall is always one of the first to be sold out, so if you can, please bake us something and help keep it open as long as possible!

The Market Garden Stall - This is a very popular stall at the Fete, so if anyone can provide Jams, Marmalade, Chutneys, Breads etc it would be much appreciated. Again, please leave items in the Parish hall on either Friday or Saturday morning.

The Grocery Stall - Donations can be left in the boxes which are in both churches or at the Parish Hall.

Tea Room - If you would be willing to provide fruit loaves, small plain scones or tray bakes for the teas please indicate what you can provide on the sign-up sheets in Church or contact the Parish Office.

Second Hand Stalls - This includes Paddy's Market, This and That, Used Toys, Crockery and Clothing Stall. Please have a good look around your cupboards, attics and garages and have a clear out of your unwanted items. These can be left in the Parish Hall from Wednesday 6th June. If you need items collected please contact the Parish Office.

Please note we can't accept old style televisions, mattresses or large wardrobes or units. If you are unsure about anything ring the Parish Office and I will be in touch.

Volunteers - On the day of the Fete in excess of 200 parishioners will be working in the church grounds. If you haven't already volunteered and would like to do so, please contact the Parish Office. If you are new to the Parish this is a great way to get involved, meet new friends and take part in a hectic but rewarding day. Your help would be appreciated – there is always something for you to do!

Erection of Tents and Stalls - If anyone is available to help erect the various tents and stalls we would be delighted to see you from Tuesday 12th onwards. We need as much help as possible all day on Friday 17th and again on Saturday evening to put everything away and return the Church grounds to normal. We had a good response for the clear up last year and had the Church grounds back to normal by 7.00pm. We also need a few volunteers on Monday 18th to finally clear up the Church Hall and store all items away under the stage.

This year's Charity Stall will be in aid of the Children's Hospice so please give them your support!

Can I asked that as far as possible all donations of items be left into the hall as early as possible? Our volunteers will be sorting through all donations and placing them in the respective stall and we want to be ready to move everything out to the stall from early Friday morning. This is especially important for electrical goods which have to be PAT tested by an outside technician before we can offer them for sale.

Finally, if you are not working at the Fete then please come along with your family and friends and encourage your friends and neighbours to come along and enjoy our 28th Fete and have a great day! We think we have something for everyone!!

Down and Dromore Diocesan Synod

This year's Synod will be in Magheralin on Thursday 14 June. Please pray for those who are planning and preparing for the Synod and for all those who will attend. Pray for wisdom and guidance, for sensitivity to the leading and guiding of the Holy Spirit and faithfulness to the will and purposes of God.

CAP Life Skills

We have had a great year in CAP Life Skills – existing friendships continue to develop and many new friendships have been formed but the best part has been seeing so many of our new friends in Church and at Church events. We thank God for His plans for us all and for His hand in CAP Life Skills.

Each Friday we have enjoyed discussions and talks on a wide range of issues, including practical money-saving ideas, living healthily on less, money management, organisational skills and cooking on a budget. Even with such serious topics, our conversations have been relaxed and informal.

We would like to thank all who have been involved because, without their commitment and ideas, Life Skills could not happen. To Gail, Sharon and Evelyn who provide lunch every Friday as well as lots of recipe ideas (and inspiration!); to Neill, Annette and Liz who continue to support our Life Skills group with their encouragement and dedication, and to all who attend every week. Also, a big 'Thank You' to Millie Moore who ran a monthly craft class this year, inspiring and motivating the budding (and not so budding) artists to try something new, from sketching and drawing to print and paper-making.

We have produced a booklet of our favourite Life Skills recipes which is available to buy and costs £3.50. Available from the Parish office or any of the Life Skills leaders, it is packed full of economical, mouth-watering, healthy recipes.

Our weekly Friday meetings will take a break for the summer but we plan to resume in September. The programme is available to everyone in the community so please let your friends and family know about Life Skills. We meet every Friday in Holy Trinity Church Hall (upstairs) 11.00 a.m. – 1.00 p.m. The course is fun, relaxed and free so come along - you can be assured of a very warm welcome.

Prayer is vital for our continued success so we are asking for your prayers for CAP Life Skills - prayers to unite us and keep us focussed but, above all, prayers to give God the glory.

For more information, please call Parish Office (02840 622744) or Alison (07707 313302)/ alisonadams@capuk.org

Mothers' Union Host Indoor Members' Communion Service

We had a wonderful afternoon in Holy Trinity Church on Thursday 17th May when we hosted the Diocesan Indoor Members' Communion Service. There were over 100 ladies at the service. Those present, included the Bishop and Mrs Miller, June Butler (Diocesan President) and Rev Gerald Macartney (Diocesan Chaplain). The Rector was the celebrant. In her sermon, Catherine, spoke about the Mothers' Union theme of following in Mary Sumner's footsteps, challenging us to follow Jesus and make a difference in our homes and communities.

After the service, those who were present enjoyed afternoon tea in the Church Hall. The entertainment included a sing-a-long of well-known songs, led by Alan and Janet Burns and a poetry recital by Eileen Johnston. Thank you to Alan, Janet and Eileen and to the ladies who served the tea and added to the occasion by dressing up to participate in the entertainment.

Wishing all our members a restful and refreshing summer.

Church of Ireland General Synod

This year's General Synod was held in Armagh from 10th-12th May, beginning on Ascension Day with a Service of Holy Communion in Armagh Cathedral. The Right Reverend John McDowell preached at the Service, with the reminder that the church has been given gifts by Christ; and with gifts, a vocation, and with a vocation; work to do as we wait for the Kingdom to come.

In his presidential address, the Most Reverend Richard Clarke spoke on the need for churches to be safe places and referred to the importance of good safeguarding practices.

He urged the Church to be a symbol of generosity: in how we treat one another, in how we give financially, and in how we offer our gifts and talents in service to the Church. The Archbishop also called the Church to be outward-giving in its generosity, as he reflected on his experience with CMS Zambia, and the need for the Church to show concern for people within our own communities. In closing, the Archbishop acknowledged the challenges of today's culture, which require the Church to be agile in its critical and analytical thinking, as we seek to remain faithful to Christ and build His Kingdom.

This year seven bills were brought to Synod. One of these was a Bill to include, in the Book of Common Prayer, an Order of Service for Morning and Evening Prayer for Use on Sundays. Another Bill in relation to representation of the whole Church of Ireland at General Synod proposed establishing a proportional and representative formula to allocate seats at Synod. This proposed Bill has been referred to Standing Committee, to be brought back to Synod next year.

The Synod approved the Liturgical Advisory Committee's motion proposing the introduction of new liturgies for a naming service and a funeral service in cases of miscarriage or stillbirth. This will be considered by Synod next year.

The Synod also heard a statement from the House of Bishops regarding 'Human Sexuality in the Context of Christian Belief', which affirmed the Church's teaching that marriage is between one man and one woman, while encouraging an attitude of compassion, humility, and concern.

Reports were received from Representative Church Body and the Standing Committee, as well as reports from the following: the Council for Mission; the Commission on Ministry; the Marriage Council; the Liturgical Advisory Committee; the Covenant Council; the Board of Education; and the Church of Ireland Youth Department.

The Book of Reports to General Synod and other information, including the Archbishop's Presidential Address, and some other speeches, are available online at Ireland.anglican.org/synod/2018/

Synod is a wonderful opportunity to be together with our brothers and sisters from all over Ireland to debate, discuss and to encourage one another in the work of God's Kingdom.
